I did find obituaries for Moses and Emily Cummins and am enclosing copies. I checked the Terre Haute Gazette and the Express from January 26 to 30, 1899, but did not find an obituary of Samuel B. Cummins. Since Moses and Emily are listed in the W.P.A. index to Vigo County death records, you could get copies of their death certificates from the Vigo County Health Dept., Vital Statistics, 201 Cherry St., Terre Haute IN 47807.

I am also enclosing a research report listing the other sources I checked for your relatives. As you can see, the name Cummins/Cummings is fairly common in Vigo County. There are several references to Moses and Emily and others in the Vigo County histories. Quite often they are just mentioned in passing. There is a biographical sketch of M. P. Cummings in Beckwith's 1880 History of Vigo and Parke Counties. According to that account, he spent several years in Edgar County IL. Bradsby's 1891 History of Vigo County, contains a biographical sketch of U. C. Greggs, who married "Miss Jemima A., daughter of Moses P. and Emily (Gaskins) Cummins, natives of Indiana, and now residents of Clark County ILL." Jemima was said to have been born in Sullivan County so it appears the family moved often.

I did not find Moses' and Emily's marriage in Vigo County, but they may have married in a nearby county. The courthouses in Clay and Sullivan counties burned around 1850 so finding the marriage may be a problem.

We have several Clay County histories, but Moses and Emily are not listed in the indexes. There is a history of Lewis Township, but it is not indexed.

If you would like copies of any of the items on the research report, our charge is 15¢ per page, plus postage. (Please send the library 52¢ for the enclosed copies.)

You might be able to get in touch with other Cummins researchers by writing the genealogical query column in the local newspaper. The address is: Genealogy, Terre Haute Tribune-Star, P.O. Box 149, Terre Haute IN 47808. Perhaps you do not have time to wait for a reply as you are working on a book.

2. Emily Cummins born: 1823 — died 1902 (15 May ✓)
Buried Woodlawn cemetery
3. Samuel Ballard Cummins born 1822 — died: Jan 26, 1899

not in Express Jan 26, 30, 1899

Do you have any information on the Cummins/Cummings of Lewis township, Clay Co. Ind? Or is this Lewis township Vigo co.?

There is a Cummins Family File

Has anyone sumitted any information ~~on the~~ Cummins family that I might get a copy of?

Are there any Cummins/Cummings listed in the Vigo county History book, if so could I get a copy of their pages?

I will appreciate any help you can give me with his family. Please let me know the cost of information including postage.

(This family from Clay/Vigo/Sullivan county is going into to print very shortly. As the family is an offshoot of my Carrithers line, Ive accumulated much information on them to prove the accuracy of my line. I can not just throw all this material away, but yet I will not be researching them further. Point is this, I will be sending you a copy of this Cummins family in book form, if you feel you can send me any other obits without the costs rising too much, so this can be a more complete history, I would dearly appreciate it. Right now there are about 400 individuals in the book.

Sincerely,

Ann Miller

Dear Mrs. Ryan:

The only birth records are at the Vigo County Board of Health, but they do not begin until 1882, and the recording was very uneven then.

I found James Cummins listed on page 745 of the Census of 1840 for Vigo County, Pierson Twp. At that time, his household consisted of only one male and one female, both between the ages of 20 and 30 years.

I also found James and Catherine Comins (could be Cumins) living in Pimento, Linton Twp, page 90 of the 1860 Census of Vigo Co. There was a five year old John, born in Ill.

I enclose a check for $2.00 and ask if you will search for a birth record for my grandfather.

His name was John B. Cummins and he was supposedly born in or near Terre Haute on July 30, 1855

His father was James B. Cummins, born in Indiana.

His death certificate does not show the name of his mother.

The Vigo County Historical Society forwarded your letter of Oct. 1 to the library.

I have not managed to find much about your ancestors. The W.P.A. Index to Marriage Record, Vigo County, 1840-1920 lists the marriage of Elias Cummins and Elizabeth S.Clem as 23 Nov. 1853, book 1, page 46. The actual marriage license is available from the clerk's office, Courthouse, Terre Haute IN 47807.

We have compiled our own index to the 1860 Vigo county census, and I checked it for Elias' family. I hoped Maude would be listed. However, I did not find Elias Cummins in our index.

The W.P.A. marriage index also lists the marriage of Elizabeth Cummins and leonard Kimble as 8 Sept. 1840, book CD, page 1. I did not find Leonard Kimball/Kimble in the Indiana 1850 Census Index. I did find the following listing for Elizabeth in 1860:

Linton Township, Vigo county, Ind. page 418 10 July 1860

#650	James Commins	-	30	Farmer	Ind.
	Catherine	"	19?		"
	John	"	8		Ill.
	Mary	"	6		"
	Edward	"	4		Iowa
	Charles	"	2		MO ?
#651	Elizabeth	Kimble	60		KY
	Daniel	"	19	Farmer	Ind
	Henry	"	15	Farm Labor	"

That James "Commins" must have been Elizabeth's son. The W.P.A. index lists the marriage of James Cummins and Catherine Booth as 2 Dec. 1850. (Obviously, Catherine lied about her age on the census.) There are several other Cummins marriages (including a Samuel Cummins who married Julia Ann Curry on 6 Feb. 1840) but none that seem to be the right dates for Elizabeth's other children. Possibly the Mary Cummins who married Jacob Herrington on 25 Feb. 1835 was Elizabeth's daughter.

I checked our various books of Vigo county cemetery records but did not find the burials of Maude Cummins, James Cummins, or Leonard Kimball. Our early cemetery records are not complete, and those most recently published were copies from the stones, many of which have become broken and unreadable, so it's possible that they are really buried somewhere in the county. However, I did find that both Cummins and Currys are buried in Shepherd Cemetery in Fayette township. Both Clems and Cummins are buried in New Harmony Cemetery, Prairieton township, and Hull Cemetery, Honey Creek township. There are Currys in Hull Cemetery too.

I did not find anything that specifically mentioned Elizabeth Clem or Elizabeth Curry, but I did find that the Clems and Currys were in the same places at the same times. Beckwith's 1880 History of Vigo and Parke Counties names George Clem as the first settler of Honey Creek township and lists George C. Clem and O. M. Curry among the charter members of the Honey Creek society of Patrons of Husbandry organized in 1869. Bradsby's 1891 History of Vigo County includes a biographical sketch of Jesse McComb of Honey Creek township who was married in 1849 to Mary, "daughter of George and Mary (Curry) Clem, who were of German descent. The father was the first permanent settler of Honey Creek, coming from Ohio in 1814, and settling among the Indians." A biographical sketch of John Durham Clem in Cronin's 1922 Account of Vigo County from Its Organization says that he owned a portrait of his great-grandmother, Mary Curry Clem, "who was born in 1791, settled in Honey Creek township in 1816, and died October 12, 1867, at the present home of Mr. and Mrs. Clem."

The 1840 census of Vigo county lists John Curry, E. S. Curry, and Mary Clem in Honey Creek township, page 761. Mary Clem had two males age 20-30, one male age 30-40, two females age 5-10, one female 10-15, one female 15-20, two females 20-30, and one female 40-50 in her household. John Clem is listed in Honey Creek township, page 775, and Eliza and Sam'l Cummins are on page 777. Eliza had two males 5-10, two males 10-15, one male 15-20, and one female 40-50 in her household. Leonard Kemble is listed in Sullivan county, page 129. I think it's likely that Elizabeth Clem was a daughter of George Clem.

The Currys were a large family, most of them being located in Sullivan county. We have Our Haddon, McClure, Curry and Allied Families compiled by Eliza Haddon Brevoort in 1952, but I did not find George Clem, James Cummins, or Leonard Kimball in the index. I wonder if Mary Curry Clem and Elizabeth Curry Cummins were related?

You might try writing the genealogical query column in the local newspaper. There are still many Curry descendents in this area. The address is: Genealogy, Dorothy Clark, Terre Haute Tribune-Star, 721 Wabash Ave., Terre Haute IN 47808. You might also have a search made of the probate records in the courthouse. Apparently George Clem died before 1840, and you might find something that names his heirs.

Dear Sirs:

It is of interest to me that I get some information with regard to my mother's family, and wondered if you could supply some information as to where and how I might obtain the most facts for my records.

Elias Cummins + Elizabeth Clem m. 23 Nov 1853

My maternal grandparents seemd to have been born and lived in Indiana, especially Vigo County for some time. My mother was born in Terre Haute, Vigo co., May 7, 1870. One sister died sometime between 1857 & 1870. would like to get the date of birth & death, I found from a census record of 1870 Vigo Co. Terre Haute, Lost Creek township the following facts about her family. Her father -Elias Charles Cummins- was a farmer with not on 1860 census Vigo Co real estate valued at $9,000 and personal property of $935.00 he was born in Vigo Co. Indiana. At that time was 44yrs of age, married to Elizabeth Clem 39yrs. of age, having 3 living children; Charles Cummins 15yrs. (1855) and George Cummins 13yrs. (1857) & my mother -Lillie May 1 month old. The sister Maude having died of measles -born sometime in between 1855-70. not in 1870 Eddy

They seemed to have lived in that area until 1877 when they moved to t Sedalia Missouri, and from Missouri to Oregon.

not in Curry Co not in Markle cem rec

His father and family lived there, too, James Cummins born Dec. 16, 1799 and his wife, Elizabeth Curry born Mar. 16, 1800 married Sept 1, 1818. They had 6 children; Mary, born 1820 John, born 1822, Elias C, born 1825, James, born 1829 Alexander born 18311, and George W. born 1833, who lived in Honey creek precinct

(2) His wife widowed by the death of James Cummins May 1, 1835 - in 1870 after 5yrs remarried, to a 43yr old widower, Leonard Kimball, with 2 living children-, Richard (1826) and Ruth Eliza Kimball (1828). Married in Indiana not in Curry Co Sept. 1, 1840. during their 18yrs of marriage they had 3 children of their own-, Daniel, (1841) Francis Mariom (1843) &, Henery Kimball (1847) whose seem to have lived in Indiana. Leonard Kimball died Nov. 12, 1858. Vigo Co Sept 8, 1840 → 1860 Linton 418

(2) I would like to get facts about the Clem family, and Curry family, birthdates and names of parents birthplaces and marriages.

(3) Where I might get copies of records, births deaths, marriages, etc.

I will appreciate any information you can furnish and will respond to any costs with copies or materials.

To facilitate your reply I am inclosing a self addressed, stamped envelope. Sincerely Yours, Theodore H Baker

Comment: There was another epidemic of cholera in July 1854. NANCY was born in Kentucky about 1805. She and her husband, JOSEPH CUMMINGS, were probably buried in Lawrence County or Eagle Township, Ogle County, Illinois, and also their oldest son, JOHN CUMMINS. NANCY died when Anderson was 13 years old, therefore her age must have been 51 - information from Vade Cummings, 1856.
